Fees for providers: (as of 1/1/2026)

This Good Faith Estimate is in accordance with the No Surprises Act. Under Section 2799B-6 of the newly enacted Public Health Service Act, health care providers must give patients who do not have insurance or who are not using insurance an estimate of the bill for medical items and services for the coming year. This message is in accordance with the new law, but Mind Compass, Inc has always had transparency in billing and that will continue to be a priority. Please reach out to the office if you ever have questions about your bills.

The initial evaluation fee will be collected prior to the evaluation visit. Subsequently, payments will be charged 48 hours prior to each scheduled appointment. The frequency of appointments is dependent on clinical need and is determined by the treating clinician based on the ongoing clinical evaluation and monitoring. However, at minimum, per practice policies, a patient must be seen 4 times per 12 month period. For patients with more acute needs or safety concerns, more frequent visits will be required.

I have been notified about the fees listed above_____

I understand that an evaluation may take multiple sessions._____

Late Fees

There is a 2% monthly (accruing weekly) late fee for bills 30 or more days overdue. Payment can be made by credit card (MasterCard or Visa). Payment can also be made by Zelle, however, a credit card must still remain on file in order to avoid these late fees.

As mentioned above, clients are responsible for appointment fees in full for late-arrival and missed (not cancelled or less than 48 hours notice) appointments.

Required Deposit:

It is required to leave credit card information for the charging of missed appointments.
